

Which horse show associations are right for me?

There are basically three reasons for joining a horse show association:

1. The show you are competing in charges a fee if you are not a member of the associations that sanction it. Actually, the associations are the ones who levy these fees. For example, USEF and USHJA each charge $30 per show for each non-member. If you ride in just two USEF-sanctioned shows, you recover the $110 annual membership fee.
2. You plan to ride in medal classes. In order to do this you must join the sponsoring associations listed below:

Association	2009 Membership Junior/Senior*	Medal
USEF/USHJA www.usef.org	$110/110	any USEF Medal, including Show Jumping Talent Search (formerly B.E.T./USET)
PCHA (Pacific Coast) www.pchorseshows.org	$35/50	PCHA 'Victor Hugo-Vidal' Adult Horsemanship PCHA 14 & Under Horsemanship Foxfield Onondarka any CPHA medal (must join CPHA also) PHA/WEST (must join CPHA also) WCE (must join CPHA also)
LAHJA (Los Angeles) www.lahja.org	$55/55	any LAHJA medal Rosewood
SFVHJA (San Fernando Valley) www.sfvhsa.org	$35/45	any SFVHSA medal
CPHA (Calif. Professional) www.cpha.org	$50/50	CPHA Jr./Am. (must join PCHA also) CPHA Foundation Eq. (must join PCHA also) WCE (must join PCHA also)

3. You plan to compete for year-end hunter or jumper awards. In this case you must also register your horse in the appropriate association(s). We recommend that you not register him with USEF as it is expensive and extremely competitive. However, if you show in any USEF-sanctioned shows your horse will need a USHJA ID number. There is a one-time fee of $30 for this. If you lease him from Foxfield or are taking a school horse to one of these shows and he doesn't already have a number, be sure you list Nancy Turrill as owner (USEF# 34191) on the form.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Equitation points go to the rider, not the horse. Also, some classes are not pointed (see horse show premiums for details).
- You do not need to register with any association to ride in Foxfield fun shows (Spring Fun, SumFun, POTS, Holiday), or in any of the rated Foxfield shows (except the Derby) unless you ride in medal classes.
- If you plan to show at all, Nancy and JoAnn recommend that you join PCHA, LAHJA and SFVHJA at a minimum. If you go to Gold Coasts, Pebble Beach, Santa Barbara, etc., plan on joining USEF also.
- All association membership forms are available on-line or in the office.

Good luck in 2009!
