Barn News

The Spirit of the Season... We had our Christmas party this year with our many members of Foxfield. The girls performed before the party for the barn, a Drill performance! Drill is a special team that rides your favorite school barn horses without any tack, and just a wire! The girls jump and have a routine in formation. We hope to see you January for the guest performance the Foxfield drill Team is performing at in the Los Angeles Equestrian Center.

Clinics... we hope to see you participate in the Kristin Hardin Clinic here at Foxfield as well (Jan 12 & 13). Please text Shelly or talk to her about signing up.

Horse Shows... we are happy to have the Foxfield horse show this year on January 15th. Remember to fill your forms! Also remember to check the show calendar up at the main barn for fun shows like The Paddock, Thermal, Delmar, The Oaks, Flintridge and so many more!

Reminders... Please remember to take your Poinsettias home and to check the Foxfield Instagram @FoxfieldRidingSchool for any barn updates.

*"Ringin'" in the New Year with Gratitude...*A big thank you to the Foxfield family for hosting the Christmas Party and Awards and Janie for organizing the Drill Team performance!

*Holiday Games on Horseback...*we want to say a huge thank you to everyone who made the Holiday Games Day a huge success. Everyone had adorable costumes and the kiddos had a great time in the lessons!

Ill and Injured

Ted Ambrosini had double knee surgery. We hope to see him back in the saddle soon! We miss you, Ted!

Gentle Reminders

When the sign says "Absolutely No Lunging", it means:
NO Lunging!

Please do not use the Cavaletti if you are not in a lesson, improper use can result in injury to your horse.

Attention: Please if you borrow standing wraps or anything from the school barn, please re-wrap and put them back in the box you found them. Thank you!

HAPPY NEW YEAR
